

GOVERNMENT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA OFFICE OF POLICE COMPLAINTS

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

POSITION TITLE: Investigator II

SALARY RANGE: $55,195 to $71,161, based on relevant work experience.

POSTED: August 26, 2016

CLOSING DATE: September 25, 2016

Introduction:

Investigator II - Investigator II is the intermediate-level job in the Investigator job progression. Investigator II is distinguished from Investigator I which is the entry level that conducts routine or simple investigations, or assists in larger more complex investigation, while developing investigatory knowledge and experience and receiving greater supervision. This job is distinguished from the Investigator III which is the senior level that receives less supervision and investigates moderately complex to highly complex, controversial and sensitive issues, reviews technical work and provides training to junior Investigators.

The Office of Police Complaints (OPC), a District of Columbia government agency that investigates citizen complaints of police misconduct, seeks to hire an experienced investigator. OPC investigators, who report to the chief investigator and two other supervisors, are responsible for conducting administrative investigations of the use of unnecessary or excessive force, harassment, discrimination, and other types of misconduct allegations made against D.C. Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) and D.C. Housing Authority Office of Public Safety (OPS) officers.

Responsibilities:

The major duties of an OPC investigator include, but are not limited to: planning and conducting investigations; interviewing and taking statements from complainants, witnesses, and police officers; gathering and analyzing evidence; making credibility determinations; and preparing well organized and thorough investigative reports.

Qualifications:

Applicants must have: (1) at least two – five years of relevant investigative experience; (2) excellent interpersonal skills; (3) strong writing skills; (4) good judgment and high ethical standards; and (5) Bachelor's Degree from an accredited university or college required, preferably in a related field of study. Applicants must also be able to work with diverse populations and have excellent organizational and time-management skills. Bilingual applicants with fluent Spanish language skills are strongly encouraged to apply. Applicants having a demonstrable interest or background in civil rights, criminal justice, or law enforcement are also encouraged to apply. District residency is preferred, but not mandatory.
